

1st Annual Food Literacy Project Golf Scramble
Hosted by Oxmoor Country Club
Monday, April 10, 2017
9000 Limehouse Lane, Louisville, KY 40220

Established in 2006, the Food Literacy Project targets underserved youth with an increased risk of diet-related illness. The Food Literacy Project has engaged over 30,000 youth as participants in a sustainable food system – by planting, harvesting, exploring, tasting, and cooking fresh vegetables.

In a time of great concern about the availability of fresh food, safety of our food sources, rising obesity and diabetes rates, as well as the cultural disconnection between our food and the earth, the Food Literacy Project offers experiential education programs that foster healthier children, healthier communities, and increased respect for the land.

We offer comprehensive experiential education through our Field-to-Fork program, serving public and private schools, community groups, and special needs groups. Activities include: Student Farm-Based Education, After-School Clubs, Family Engagement, Professional Development, Community Engagement & Youth Development.

YOU can bring the Field-to-Fork experience to life for more local youth by becoming a “Greenhouse” hole sponsor today!
