New Roots Fresh Stop Markets Louisville, KY and Southern Indiana

2020 Season Schedule

These markets pop up every two weeks during the growing season, June-November, at churches, businesses and community centers. Shareholders pay on an income-based sliding scale, two weeks before each pick up date. Each bag contains nine varieties of fresh, local, mostly organically-certified vegetables and some fruit: $6 if paying with SNAP; $12.75 for limited resources; $27 for higher income; and, $43 for Food Justice Shares.
