

YOUR GIFT TO THE FOOD LITERACY PROJECT PROVIDES...

Youth Community
Agriculture Program
(YCAP)

Cultivates extraordinary teen leaders empowered with the skills to live healthy and productive lives and to transform their food system and communities.

Field-to-Fork
Clubs

Nurtures an appreciation for good health and the natural world in youth and families.

Iroquois Urban Farm
Produce Distribution

An 8-acre, youth-driven vegetable-growing operation located on the site of the former Iroquois Homes public housing complex in South Louisville.

Annual / Monthly

$60/$5

Supplies for a YCAP-led community cooking demonstration.

Seeds and plant starts for a club member's family garden.

A row of vegetables at the farm.

$120/$10

Seeds for YCAP to plant the community learning garden.

Fresh produce samples for a club member and their family for a season.

Fresh produce for a week to a family of five experiencing food insecurity.

$504/$42

Transportation for a YCAP Crew Member.

Cooking supplies for a Field-to-Fork Club for a full season.

Maintenance of the Kubota tractor and other farm equipment for the growing season.

$1008/$84

Enrichment and networking opportunities for YCAP Crew Members.

67 Field-to-Fork Club Family Remote Learning Kits for home delivery.

Soil amendments and irrigation supplies for the growing season.

$5004/$417

Life-changing employment and leadership opportunity for a YCAP Crew Member.

A Field-to-Fork Club season at one of our partner schools or community-based organizations for 10-15 children.

Fresh, youth-grown produce to neighborhood food pantries for a month.